THE DAILY SENTINEL.

C. L. MAC ARTHUR & D. M KEELER, EDITORS.

Wednesday Morning, December 11.

☞ To-morrow being Thanksgiving, no paper will be issued from this office. We hope the places of business will be generally closed, especially in the afternoon and evening. The day comes but once a year, and when it does come it should be observed.

Thanksgiving.

To morrow is the day which Gov. Tallmadge designated for the people of the Territory to observe as a day of thanksgiving and prayer.—A FAIR correspondent, whose communication appears in another column, suggests that our merchants and business men close their stores and shops in the afternoon and evening, and throwing aside the cares, perplexities and vexations of every day life, give themselves up to the observance of the day. The suggestion is a good one, and we should be glad to see it complied with.

All the happiness enjoyed by us gregarious mortals, is snatched from these little resting spells on the road of Life. Pleasure comes not to us in long and continued draughts.—The sum total of happiness and contentment enjoyed in our existence is made up from the little pleasurable emotions and joyous feelings which we snatch from the various meandering scenes through which we pass. He who reclines by the wayside and enjoys joys from every circumstance—as the bee extracts sweetness from the most poisonous flower—is the best moral philosopher.

Holidays and Thanksgivings should always be observed. They are like houses of refreshment and entertainment, placed upon a lone and desolate pathway—where the weary traveller on the road of human existence, may for a short time throw aside his knapsack of cares and troubles, and cast his eye back over the highway upon which he has journeyed and refresh himself for a new start. As the eye wanders adown the road ahead, the prospects look brighter, less difficulties appear to obstruct the way; and after a few hours of enjoyment from the pleasures of the social circle, we again start on our way with buoyant hopes & brighter anticipations for the future. The heart loses none of it's purity by participating in joyous festivities. Americans have too few holydays—too small a number of social intermingling's of feeling and spirit, for their own good. The finer feelings—the social qualities of the heart—such as a day of Thanksgiving will call forth—should be fully developed, to make us either happy or good.

Ladies' Fair.

The members of the Ladies' Circle of Industry will give a Fair at St. Paul's Church to-morrow evening. We understand that all the arrangements are got up on the most liberal plan. In addition to all the little et ceteras and nice things which are the usual concomitants of a Fair, the ladies have bounteously provided a rich and sumptuous array of eatables, from pumpkin pies upward, ad infinitum. This will be the first public assemblage which has met at St. Paul's Church, and we will stake our reputation as a prophet that it will be one of the largest and most joyous meetings which will ever convene within its walls.

Foreign news—15 days later from Europe.

The Brittania arrived at Boston on Friday, the 22d ult. She brought but little intelligence which will interest our readers.

Money was plenty in England and speculation in rail road stock was unusually rife.

Trouble is breeding in Spain. This unhappy country is again threatened with civil war. The new constitution takes from the people the last vestage of liberty.

Father Matthew, has become involved in pecuniary embarrassments, by the very liberal support given by him to the cause of Temperance. A subscription is in circulation which will speedily relieve him from his difficulties.

The Steamship Great Britain has been relieved from her long confinement.

M. Arago, a distinguished philosopher and experimentor says that the principle of Atmospheric pressure may be so applied as to ensure safe transit at the speed of six leagues a minute, or 1000 miles an hour!

The potatoe crop is abundant in Ireland.—The size of the potatoes are prodigious, weighing from three to four pounds each.

The Paris papers announce that France is taking steps to abolish Negro slavery in its colonies. The whole civilized world, except America, seems to be moving in this matter. Shall the citizens of the "land of the Free," be laggards much longer in clearing our country from the stain of slavery?

It is rumored that the three powers, who have controlled the affairs of Greece, intend to give over its government to the care of Austria or Prussia.

☞ The board kiln belonging to C. E. Woolsey of Kilbourntown, caught fire yesterday, and was burned to the ground, with all its contents. Some buildings in the vicinity had a narrow escape.

Milwaukie District Court.

The District Court of this County adjourned on Saturday last, having been in session four weeks.—Among the usual quantity and variety of business disposed of, the following cases only are of any importance or interest to the public.

United States vs Uriel Farman.—This was an indictment against Mr. Farman, who formerly was the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of this County for embezzleing County Orders, heretofore the subject matter of much doubt, speculation and indignation on the part of the tax payers of the county. The trial lasted nearly a week, during which time every body who knew, or was supposed to know, and many who knew nothing of the transaction, were sworn and examined as witnesses in the cause. No facts or circumstances, tending to fasten suspicion upon the defendant, or any other person were elicited; and therefore the jury, under the instruction and decision of the court, and without leaving the jury box, rendered a verdict of Not Guilty, in full accordance with public sentiment.

Council for the United States—D. A. J. Upham, Esq, Prosecuting Attorney. For the defendant Tweedy and Stow.

United States vs. Isaac Hill and Samuel F. Gilman.—Indictment for passing counterfeit [bogus] money. Hill was convicted and sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail for the term of one year and payment of costs. Gilman was acquitted and discharged.

D. A. J. Upham, Prosecuting Attorney for U. S.—J. Holliday and J. W. Hemenway for Prisoners.

United States vs. Michael Kane.—Indictment for Petit Larceny—Deft. convicted—Upham, for the Prosecution—Crary, for the Defendant.

United States vs. Ransom Nichols.—Indictment for Assault and Battery, Defendant convicted—Upham, for the Prosecution, Crary & Downer for the defendant.

The only cases on the Civil Docket of any interest to the public were the two cases of Isaac C. Loomis and Loring Dorey against William M. McCarty, being actions to recover three times the excess of interest paid by them on money advanced at the sale of the Public Lands in 1829—The causes came before the Court upon demurrers to the plaintiff's declarations.—The parties having settled, no decision was made upon the demurrers—Yates, Randall & Ogden for the Plaintiff. Stow, Hubbell, Finch and Lynde for the Defendant.

We understand that all the causes on the Criminal Appeal, and Issue Docket, were disposed of, though only about 15 verdicts were rendered during the whole term. A large majority of the cases disposed of were judgments by consent and by default.

It may be as well to mention that a petition is afloat, signed by almost all the jurors, witnesses parties, Lawyers, and we think, the Judges, praying the Legislature to grant us another term of Court.

It is esteemed necessary on all hands, and no doubt we shall have it.

For the Daily Sentinel.

EDITORS DAILY SENTINEL.—

GENTLEMEN—This being leap year, ladies have an undoubted right to make certain suggestions and requirements of "the lords of creation," which, according to the laws of gallantry, they are bound to listen to with obedience. Presuming that your hearts "are overflowing with the milk of human kindness," I have written to request that you will ask, through the columns of The Daily Sentinel, the business men of Milwaukie to close their stores and places of business, to-morrow afternoon and evening. Divine services are to be observed in the afternoon; at one or more of the churches, and in the evening we fair ones are to give a Fair at St. Paul's Church, and we hold that it is no more than fair that the fair and liberal merchants and business men of Milwaukie should close their doors—put up their blinds—shut their ledgers—and show their fair countenances at our Fair, where we pledge them they shall find the most liberal fare which they have yet feasted on in this "land of milk and honey."

Our Governor has made the same request, and the ladies of Milwaukie unite in reiterating it. Those who can resist the request of the Governor, and will give no heed to the voices of the sovereigns of the social circle must have hearts as hard as Pharoah.

Respectfully, JANE.
Milwaukie, December 10, 1841.

M. C. G.—We direct the attention of the members of the Milwaukie City Guards to a call in another column for a meeting THIS EVENING at our Office. One object of the meeting will be the adoption of a uniform fo the Corps.

☞ We regret the unavoidable necessity that compels us to leave out in to day's paper the favors of several advertising friends; among others the advertisements of Messrs. Leonard J. Farwell, and Wm. L. Wilshire. They shall appear in our next.

There are now six hundred paper mills in operation in the United States, giving active use to a capital of $16,000,000, manufacturing at least a sum equal to its capital per annum, and affording maintainance to upwards of 50,000 persons.

Was it Providence?

Take, for example, a young girl, bred delicately in town, shut up in a nursery in her childhood, in a boarding school through her youth, never accustomed either to air or exercise, two things that the law of God makes essential to health. She marries, her strength is inadequate to the demands upon it. Her beauty fades early. She languishes through her hard offices of giving birth to children, suckling and watching over them, and dies early.—"What a strange Providence, that a mother should be taken, in the midst of life, from her children"—Was it Providence?—No!—Providence had assigned her three score years and ten; a term long enough to rear her children, and to see her children's children; but she did not obey the laws on which life depends, and of course she lost it.

A father, too, is cut off in the midst of his days. He is a useful and distinguished citizen, and eminent in his profession. A general buzz rises, on every side of "What a striking Providence." This man has been in the habit of studying half the night, of passing his days in his office and the courts, of eating luxurious dinners, and drinking various wines. He has every day violated the laws on which life depends. Did Providence cut him off? The evil rarely ends here. The diseases of the father are often transmitted; and a feeble mother rarely leaves behind her vigorous children.

It has been customary in some of our cities; for young ladies to walk in thin shoes and delicate stockings in mid-winter. A healthy, blooming, young girl, thus dressed in violation of Heaven's laws, pays the penalty; a checked circulation, cold, fever, and death. "What a sad Providence!" exclaim her friends. Was it Providence, or her own folly?

A beautiful young bride goes, night after night, to parties made in honor of her marriage. She has a slightly sore throat, perhaps, and the weather is inclement; but she must wear her neck and arms bare; for who ever saw a bride in a close evening dress? She is consequently seized with an inflamation of the lungs, and the grave receives her before her bridal days are over—"What a Providence!" exclaims the world. "Cut off in the midst of happiness and hope!" Alas, did she not cut the thread of life herself?

A girl in the country exposed to our changeful climate, gets a new bonnet instead of getting a flannel garment. A rheumatism is the consequence. Should the girl set down tranquilly with the idea that Providence had sent the rheumatism upon her, or should she charge it on her vanity, and avoid the folly in future?

Look, my young friends, at the mass of diseases that are incurred by intemperance in eating or in drinking, or in study, or in business; also being caused often by neglect of exercise, cleanliness, pure air, by indiscreet dressing, tight lacing, &c, and all is quietly imputed to Providence? Is there not impiety as well as ignorance in this? Were the physical laws strictly observed from generation to generation, there would be an end to the frightful diseases cut short, and of the long list of maladies that make life a torment or a trial. It is the opinion of those who best understand the physical system, that this wonderful machine, the body, this goodly temple, would gradually decay, and men would die as if falling asleep.

DISASTROUS FIRE AT SARATOGA SPRINGS.

By an extra from the office of the Saratoga Republican, we learn that between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday fire broke out in a wooden building on the east side of broadway, which was entirely consumed, together with five other buildings, embracing altogether 14 tenements. The buildings consumed were owned by Brainard Spencer, of Hartford; Smith Mitchell, Hugh McCready, John A. Waterbury and Robt. Gardner of Saratoga Springs. The occupants were A. C. Birchard, druggist; J. Van Pelt, barber; L. J. Hubbard, hatter; E. Wildey, porter cellar; Messrs. Avery, law office; Joseph Beach; Granger & Cole, butchers; J. L. White, Grocer; Allen and Darrow, grocers; Philips, Williams & Co., R. H. & J. Benedict, merchants. The aggregate loss is estimated at $15,000, a part of which was covered by insurance.

ILLINOIS CANAL.—The Journal of Commerce publishes an interesting letter from Baring, Brothers & Co., to Col. Oakly, one of the Illinois Canal Commissioners. From this it seems the whole hope of raising sufficient funds to complete the canal rests on the Legislature of Illinois. If that body impose a tax to pay a part of the current interest of the debt of the State, and give assurance satisfactory to her creditors that the principal will eventually be safe for the whole interest, then, the money needed to finish this great work will not be withheld.

Upon the southern coast of Lake Superior, about fifty miles from the falls of St. Mary, are the immense precipitous cliffs, called by the voyagers, Le Portrial and the Pictured Rock. This name has been given to them in consequence of the different appearances which they present to the traveller, as he passes their base in his canoe. It requires little aid from the imagination to discern in them the castellated tower and lofty dome, spires and pinnacles, and every sublime, grotesque, or fantastic shape, which the genius of architecture ever invented. These cliffs are an unbroken mass of rocks, rising to an elevation of three hundred feet above the level of the lake, and stretching along the coast for fifteen miles. The voyager never passes this coast except in the most profound calm; and the Indians before they make the attempt, offer their accustomed oblations to propitiate the favor of the Great Spirit. The eye instinctively searches along this eternal rampart for a single place of security; but the search is in vain. With an impassible barrier of rocks on one side, and an interminable expanse of water on the other, a sudden storm upon the lake would as inevitably insure the destruction of the passenger in his frail canoe, as if he were on the brink of the cataract of Niagara. The rock itself is a sandstone, which is disentegrated by the continual action of the water with comparative facility. There are no broken masses upon which the eye can rest and find relief. The lake is so deep that these masses, as they are torn from the precipice, are concealed beneath its waters until they are reduced to sand. The action of the waves has undermined every projecting point; and there the immense precipice rests upon arches, and the foundation is intersected with caverns in every direction.

When we passed this mighty fabric of nature, the wind was still and the lake was calm. But even the slightest motion of the waves, which, in the most profound calm, agitates these eternal seas, swept through the deep cavern with a noise of distant thunder, and died away upon the ear, as if rolled forward in the dark recesses inaccessible to human observation. No sound more melancholy or more awful ever vibrated upon human nerves. It has left an impression which neither time nor distance can ever efface. Resting in a frail bark canoe upon the limpid waters of the lake, we seemed almost suspended in the air, so pellucid is the element upon which we floated. In gazing upon the towering battlements which impended over us, and from which the smallest fragment would have destroyed us, we felt, and felt intensely, our own insignificance. No situation can be imagined more appalling to the courage, or more humbling to the pride of man. We appeared like a wreck upon the face of creation. Our whole party, Indians and voyagers, and soldiers, officers and serv'ts, contemplated in mute astonishment the scene; and no sound broke upon the ear to interrupt the ceaseless roaring of the waters. No splendid cathedral, no temple built with human hands, no pomp of worship could ever impress the spectator with such humility, and so strong a conviction of the immense distance between him and the Almighty Architect.

The writer of this article has viewed the falls of Niagara, and the passage of the Potomac through the blue ridge, two of the most stupendous objects in the natural features of the country. The impression they produce is feeble and transient compared with that of the Pictured Rocks on Lake Superior.

AN IMPORTANT QUESTION.—Amid the exciting topics of the day, political or otherwise, one important matter that deeply concerns the interests of the brighter and lovlier portion of humanity should not be overlooked, at least by them. It is almost the only question on which the selfishness of "the lords of creation" have left them a vote, and we advise them by no means to let the golden moments slip away, suffering their dearer rights and priviliges to be swallowed up in the vortex of politics.—Let the men who wrangle and hurrah for "Polk and Dallas!" "Clay and Frelinghuysen," as they may; we, as the avowed champion of women's rights," venture to remind them that less than two months now remain of the year 1844—Leap Year!—Will thou suffer it to pass away idly, without a struggle for their rights? Forbid it Hymen! Let not Thanksgiving be allowed to come and go, without its fitting accompaniment—plenty of weddings!—Charge the bachelors! Up, girls, and at them; and the day, or the bachelor, is yours! This is the time for action—immediate action! Go, for annexation, the whole figure, and remember, that losing this opportunity, you, like party politicians, will not have another such a chance for four years! Push on the Column!—Boston Bee.

☞ You don't say so!

The Ladies Circle of Industry Of St Paul's Church, Milwaukie, will hold their Fair at the building now being finished for a Church, on Thursday Evening next, to which the ladies and gentlemen of Milwaukie and the surrounding country are solicited to attend.

MILWAUKIE VARIETY STORE!.... The subscribers would respectfully inform the citizens of Milwaukie and inhabitants of the Territory in general, that they have just arrived here with, and constantly receiving a kind of goods, the like of which is not to be found in any other store in town. It would be useless for us to undertake to enumerate the articles but the nearest that we would be able to embody them in a few words, would be, YANKEE NOTIONS, wholesale and retail.

To country Merchants we would say, that we have opened here with the intention of selling Yankee Notions at wholesale as cheap, if not cheaper than can be bought any where else in town. We do not say this for to throw out an inducement for them to call, but we will do so.—We would refer you to some of the articles below. You will be able to find us at the old stand of the "Milwaukie Clothing Store," opposite the Cottage Inn.

A lot of broadcloths, cassimeres and satinets, clocks, stocks, sewing silk, thread linen and cotton, Clark's spool cotton, hooks and eyes, black and white in boxes, and cards, razors warranted, Wade & Butcher's, Henningsson's needles, knitting do. knives 1 2 3 and 4 blades, steel pens and german pipes, pearl buttons and percussion caps, Carpenters' pencils, a general assortment of beads, combs of all kinds, brushes, tooth hair and cloth, shaving soap and boxes, fancy soap and essence, pistols, steel barreled, table cloths and napkins, table covers and cutlery, fancy spool stands, umbrellas and suspenders, fiddles, jewsharps, purses and wafers.

FOREIGN AGENCY.—The subscriber would inform the public that he has completed his organization for the transaction of all kinds of foreign business in England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, the Isle of Man, Guernsey and Jersey, and in France, Germany, Belgium, Holland, Switzerland, &c.

His arrangements are of the best description, and comprise every department which emigrants and others doing business with the old countries, require such as—

The forwarding of letters, parcels and packages by sailing ships and steamers, and inland to any point of Europe and America that may be desired: Freights and postages can be prepaid if the parties wish it.

Remittances in large or small sums made at this agency, in a manner entirely different from that practiced by other houses, and which prevents the possibility of loss or delay. For particulars apply at this office.

The settlement of accounts and estates, and the collection of monies in Europe, will be attended to by the most competent agents, and may frequently prevent the necessity of parties visiting Europe, on such business.

Passengers sent to or brought out from the leading ports of Europe, such as London, Liverpool, Havre, Bremin, Hamburgh, Marseilles, Genoa, &c.

Arrangements have been made to forward passengers, freight, packages by the Isthmus of Darien, [via Chagres and Panama] to the west coast of America and all parts of the pacific.—Parcels and letters can be prepaid through to Panama if desired by the parties; and for parcels and letters to all parts of the East Indies, China, &c.. by the British steamers to Alexandria, and across the Isthmus of Suez.
